З радія "Милосердний Самарянин"

Четверта неділя після Зіслання Святого Духа називається також неділею всіх святих українського народу. Українські святі, це знак Божого благословення і опіки для нашого народу і держави, нашої землі. Це Божі знаки віри і любові для нас. Вони - наші провідники до Бога, до неба, заступники перед Богом у небі.

Згадаймо сьогодні пам'ять св. Рівноапостольного Володимира Великого, який офіційно запровадив християнство на наших землях тому більше як тисячу років і його бабуню святу рівноапостольну княгиню Ольгу, яка своїми молитвами і боговгодним життям остаточно приспорила Христовий прихід до нашого народу.

Перед нашими очима постійно світить світлий приклад святих мучеників Бориса і Гліба, які спромоглися на найбільшу жертву віддавши своє життя, щоб жити життям вічним і так нам указали на потребу жертви на нашій дорозі до спасіння.

Пригадуємо святих монахів Антонія і Теодозія Печерських, що своїм життям показали, як потрібно нам відректися всього, не прив'язуватися до того що посідаємо, віддати все аби Христа придбати і від нього одержати вінець слави.

Св. Аліпій Іконописець своїм непересічним талантом прославив Господа у своїх чудових іконах, перед якими наш нарід молився і даліше молитися. Згідно з легендами йому ангел допомагав кінчати ікони, коли він будучи хворим не мав сили це сам зробити.

Згадуємо тих що недавно проголошені блаженними, а між ними єпископа Миколу Чарнецького, Архимандрита Студитів Климентія Шепицького, о. Еміліяна Ковча та й інших, і молимося, щоб вони в недовзі були проголошені святими..

Пам'ятаємо про слуг Божих Митрополита Андрея Шептицького, Патріярха Йосифа Сліпого і тих угодників Божих які дали нам добрий приклад наслідування Христа. Молимся за їхню славу, і намагаймося наслідувати їх.

Святі є Божими дітьми, і ми стараємося бути їхніми братами і сестрами. Вони наблизилися до Бога у міру їхніх можливостей, і ми ціле життя повинні старатися наблизитися до нього у міру наших можливостей. Як вони могли і ми можемо.

Усі святі є нам близькі, бо вони у всьому подібні до нас. Вони членами тієї самої церкви, прославленої. Вони вислуховують наші молитви і заносять їх перед Божий престіл.

Одиноке що вимагається від нас, це бажання робити добро, бути для інших другим Христом і в інших добачати Христа. А це є любов, яку нам Христос показав, а святі відповідне первели це своїм життям. Любов є та що допроваджує нас до отого місця у якому Господь перебуває разом зі своїми святими.

Отож, практикуймо набожність до українських святих, шануючи цим їх, як особливий Божий дар для нас. Просимо Господа за їх посередництвом, щоб ми вистояли в нашому правдивому християнському житті аж до смерті, любили щирим серцем нашу церкву і наш нарід, так як вони, пам'ятаючи завжди, що слід шанувати чуже, але ніколи свого не цуратися.

Український Фестиваль Парохії Св. Йосафата в Рочестері відбудеться у днях 18-21 Серпня. Просимо взяти участь!

From "Good Samaritan" Ukr. Radio program

Just about every kid has a period in their lives where they love superheroes. The kids idolize their ability to do the impossible, to fly, their incredible strength or their x-ray vision. When I was growing up, I loved superman and wonder woman. I wanted to be just like them - strong, good, protecting the innocent and fighting for those in need of their super powers. A sad time for me came when I realized I could not be one of those comic book superheroes, because it was impossible. And sometimes I think that we read the Bible like we would read a comic book, or watch our favorite superheroes on the television or at the movies. We look at the amazing things that some of the folks did in the Bible, we even idolize their passion for God, and sometimes it is hard to grasp that these were real people who once lived, and not just a bunch of made up superheroes. These people had real struggles and genuine problems in life, they were not superheroes - they were just people like you and me putting their superior faith into practice. They were super people with impeccable character, but they did not have special powers to live better lives or do anything more fantastic then we are capable of doing today – they simply had a special kind of faith. They are examples for us about how we too, can live our lives.

When I read of people like Abraham and Moses, David and Elijah, Mary Magdalene and Elizabeth, Peter and Paul, I envy some things about them. I envy the closeness they had with God. They had a special relationship with the Almighty; they were in constant communication with Him. I envy what they could accomplish for God. It is amazing how God can take these weak and imperfect individuals and do such amazing things through them that they could so greatly impact other people. I envy their unswerving faith. They trusted God even when it did not make sense to them, and especially when it was not popular and when things were not going their way. They are spiritual giants that we are talking about thousands of years later because of the kind of faith that they had. I hope today that many of us read through the Bible and sometimes think, “That’s the type of person that I want to be” or “that is the type of faith that I would like to have.” The bottom line is that we can have that type of faith. Jesus promised that we would be able to have a faith that could move mountains. One of my favorite characters in the Bible is the Apostle Peter. Peter was a man who was full of zeal for the Lord. When Jesus was on the mountain and was transfigured with Moses and Elijah it was Peter who wanted to stay and build shelters for all three of them. When Jesus told Peter he was going to be killed it was Peter who said he would die with him. People can fault Peter for some of his overzealous actions, and even for denying that he knew the Lord three times, but overall, Peter had a heart for Jesus and is an example for us all of the excitement we should have in following Jesus.

The Gospel reading for this ninth Sunday after Pentecost follows straight on from that of last Sunday. After feeding the multitude, Jesus sends the apostles away. He tells them to get into a boat and cross the sea, and Jesus himself retires to a mountain, alone, to pray. Meanwhile, the ship in which the disciples are crossing the Sea of Galilee is shaken by the strong waves as the winds blow against them. But suddenly the disciples see Jesus walking out to them on the sea; and terrified, they think it is a ghost. Jesus reassures them: “Be of good cheer, it is I, Be not afraid”. To Peter’s request: “Lord, if it is you, then bid me to come out on the water”. Jesus answers him: “Come”. Peter gets out of the ship: ‘And when Peter was coming down out of the ship, he walked on the water to go out to Jesus. But when he saw the waves and felt the wind he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried out saying: “Lord, save me”’. Jesus stretched out his hands to him, and saves Peter, but then gently rebukes him for having such little faith. Jesus and Peter get back into the ship and when the wind dies down; the disciples kneel down to worship Jesus saying: “Thou art the Son of God”. This account contains precious information that applies to our own spiritual life. The wind tossed waves on which Peter wanted to walk could be compared to our difficulties and, especially, to our temptations in life. If we look back at our own spiritual defeats, we will see that it was always in the instant when we stopped looking at Jesus and stop allowing our conscience to be our guide, that we began to sink. Just as Peter became fearful, took his eyes off Christ, and began to sink in the raging waters. There will be many storms in life that surround us and threaten us, but if we have enough faith to remain focused on the Lord, then we will overcome and defeat any difficulties in life by showing complete trust in our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

A voyaging ship was wrecked during a storm at sea and only two of the men on it were able to swim to a small, desert like island. The two survivors, not knowing what else to do, came to an agreement that they had no other recourse but to pray to God. However, to determine whose prayers should be most effective, they agreed to divide the territory between them and stay on opposite sides of the island. The first thing they prayed for was food. The next morning, the first man saw a fruit-bearing tree on his side of the island, and he was able to eat its fruit. The other man's parcel of land remained barren. After a week, the first man prayed for a house, clothes, more food. The next day, all of these were given to him. However, the second man still had nothing. Finally, the first man prayed for a ship, so that he could leave the island. In the morning, he found a ship docked at his side of the island and boarded the ship to leave. Since none of the second man's prayers had been answered, since nothing on his side of the island had been changed, the first man considered the other man unworthy to receive God's blessings, so he decided to leave the second man stranded on the island. As the ship was about to leave, the first man heard a voice from Heaven above, "Why are you leaving your companion on the island?" The man said, "My blessings are a result of my faith and prayers, since I was the one who prayed for them. His prayers were all unanswered Lord, so I figured he does not believe in you or deserve anything." "You are sorely mistaken", said the voice from Heaven, "And you are in greater debt to your companion than you know." "How is that?" The man asked. "It was his great faith that invoked your blessings and gave you everything that you have, because he prayed that all of your prayers would be answered."

Immediately following this miracle of Jesus and Peter on the water, Jesus taught the large crowds that had gathered about the Bread of Life. The Bible tells us that the crowds had a hard time accepting Jesus' message and were offended. Amidst the crowds turning their backs on Jesus, he looks back to his disciples with a broken heart and asks them, are they going to leave him too? Peter is the one that pipes up and says an incredible thing that was no doubt shaped by the incident on the Sea of Galilee just a little while earlier, "To whom shall we go, you alone have the words of Eternal life, and we believe and know that you are the Son of God." Peter is saying; I believe without any doubt that you alone can save. We should all have such a zeal and a passion about encountering Jesus today. Sometimes in order to get to Jesus we need to get out of the boat; we need to leave our comfort zone and place our complete trust in the Lord. The truth is that, no matter what the storm may be, the storm has a purpose. Our storms in life may be sickness or disease, pain, or even loss; but Jesus is always in the midst of the storm. God can and will use storms to bring us to a higher level of spiritual growth. Jesus told Peter to come out of the boat to Him. Today, he is calling us out of the boat; he is calling us to step out on the raging water in faith. When Peter was called out of the boat the storm was howling greatly and the waves were crashing. Peter still had the desire to be with Jesus. We all need this faith to step out of our boats because Jesus is calling out to us in faith. We are not called to be superheroes; but we are called to be a people with super faith. The storms of life may be great and the winds may be moving all around us, but let us never forget that it is Jesus who moves the wind. And whenever life seems to throw us a curve ball, just remember the words of Jesus to His disciples – "Be of good cheer; it is I - be not afraid".

«Христос Наша Пасха»

І. ОБ'ЯВЛЕННЯ ПРЕСВЯТОЇ ТРОЙЦІ

Г. Керигма і Катехиза

2. Інкультурація Благовісті

62 Таким чином одне Євангеліє Ісуса Христа втілюється в множинність культур християнських народів, єдине Передання Божого Слова виразилося в багатоманітні традиції. Кожна помісна Церква своєю традицією здійснює свій внесок у розуміння цього єдиного Передання.

3. Зростання у вірі: оглашення, просвічення, тайновведення

63 Катехиза дорослих у Церкві перших століть відбувалася трьома етапами – через оглашення, просвічення і тайновведення. Оглашення (грецькою – катехуменат) починалося з представлення нового кандидата християнській спільноті. За згодою спільноти кандидат ставав оглашеним – його ім'я «оголосили» в спільноті і тепер йому «про-голошують» Святе Письмо. Він перебував у притворі храму. Притвор був зовнішнім символом духовного стану оглашеного: він уже покинув світ, але ще не ввійшов у Церкву, храм вірних. Вислухавши під час Божественної Літургії Боже Слово і проповідь, оглашенні повинні були вийти з храму після молитви церковної спільноти за них – екстенії за оглашених.
